2022, she was among the “national and international legal experts” who was invited to contribute to the Jean Monnet Module EU-Western Balkans Cooperation on Justice and Home Affairs at the University of Salerno, Italy. In 2020, she joined a research programme in Colombia on Corruption Associated with Transnational Crime (TOC) as Chair of the U.S. working Group. Furthermore, in 2021, she secured an affiliation as a Visiting Researcher at the Faculty of Law at the University of Zagreb, Croatia. Her research has been cited in documents on international principles, e.g., THE LEXINGTON PRINCIPLES ON THE RIGHTS OF DETAINEES (2009). Professor Matwijkiw also authored ethics recommendations for the United Nations as a participant in the first global post-WWII study on transitional justice. This was directed by M. Cherif Bassiouni and co-sponsored by the EuropeAid Office of the European Commission under the auspices of the International Institute of Higher Studies in Criminal Sciences, Italy, 2008-2010). Very recently, the interdisciplinary profile of Professor Matwijkiw’s research activities also resulted in a 2022 invitation to become a Center & Program Faculty Affiliate at the Illinois Global Institute.
