

Jean Monnet Module EU-GLOBACT

Transnational Crime and EU Law:
towards Global Action against Cross-border
Threats to common security, rule of law,
and human rights

Research Staff

EMANUELE VANNATA is Ph.D. candidate in “Legal Sciences” (International, European and Comparative Law) at the Department of Legal Sciences (School of Law) of the University of Salerno (Italy). At the same University, he is also Honorary Fellow and Teaching Assistant in International Law, Diplomatic and Consular Law and International Law and Cyber Security at the Department of Management & Innovation Systems as well as in European Union Law, European Union Migration Law, International Criminal Law, International Organization and Law of the European Single Market, International Trade and New Technologies at the Department of Legal Sciences (School of Law). Furthermore, he is member of the Research Staff of IECLO (International and European Criminal Law Observatory on Cultural Issues, Human Rights, and Security), and Tutor of the Jean Monnet Chair “EUVALWEB” (Promoting Public Awareness of Enlargement Policy, EU Values and the Accession of the Western Balkans), admitted for co-financing by the European Commission for the three-year period 2022-2025, at the University of Salerno. He was Research Fellow on “Big Data and Patient Monitoring: Privacy Issues and Solutions” at the Department of Management & Innovation Systems of the University of Salerno (Italy). Due to his research interests in the domains of international and EU law and jurisprudence (i.e. ethical issues, environmental and health protection, climate change, migration and fundamental rights, and judicial and police cooperation), he participated as speaker in many conferences and seminars, but also in several research projects funded by University of Salerno and attended the Jean Monnet Course on “Migration and Fundamental Rights at the Southern Borders of the European Union” (2015), the Jean Monnet Summer School on “Climate Change, Health and the Environment” (2018) and the Jean Monnet High Specialized Course on “EU-Western Balkans Cooperation on Justice and Home Affairs” (2020) at the University of Salerno. He achieved a Postgraduate Specialization on EU Law at the University of Naples “Federico II”. Together with his

UNIVERSITÀ DEGLI STUDI DI SALERNO

IECLO

Jean Monnet Module EU-GLOBACT

Transnational Crime and EU Law: towards Global Action against Cross-border Threats to common security, rule of law, and human rights research's activities, he is furthermore active in scientific production in the field of international and EU law and jurisprudence (lastly, “Environmental Solidarity in the Area of Freedom, Security and Justice. Towards the Judicial Protection of (Intergenerational) Environmental Rights in the EU”, in FREEDOM, SECURITY & JUSTICE: EUROPEAN LEGAL STUDIES, No. 3, 2022, pp. 266-288). Moreover, he is Editorial Assistant of the Journal EUWEB LEGAL ESSAYS. GLOBAL & INTERNATIONAL PERSPECTIVES and of several books such as “Law, Cultural Studies and the ‘Burqa Ban’. An Interdisciplinary Handbook” (Anja Matwijkiw & Anna Oriolo eds., Intersentia, 2021) and “Solidarity and Rule of Law. The New Dimension of EU Security” (T. Russo, A. Oriolo, G. Dalia eds., Springer, 2023 (forthcoming)). Emanuele Vannata is also a Lawyer at the Bar of Salerno.

E-mail:

evannata@unisa.it

UNIVERSITÀ DEGLI STUDI DI SALERNO

Co-funded by the European Union

IECLO

Project funded by European Commission Erasmus + Programme – Jean Monnet Action Project number 101126599. Funded by the European Union. Views and opinions expressed are however those of the author(s) only and do not necessarily reflect those of the European Union or the European Education and Culture Executive Agency (EACEA). Neither the European Union nor EACEA can be held responsible for them