

Jean Monnet Module EU-GLOBACT

Transnational Crime and EU Law:
towards Global Action against Cross-border
Threats to common security, rule of law, and human rights

Communications & External Relations Section (CERS)

ORSOLA ILENIA CONTE is attending a Master Degree in Law at the University of Salerno, with a thesis on the EU competence in criminal matters, serving as Junior Member of the Legal Observatory of the Jean Monnet Module “EU-Western Balkans Cooperation on Justice and Home Affairs?” (EUWEB) based at Department of Legal Sciences (School of Law) of the University of Salerno (Italy). Due her research interests in criminal law, human rights, cultural heritage and judicial and police cooperation she is involved several research projects funded by University of Salerno in the fields of international and EU law and jurisprudence (such as transnational crimes, rule of law, ethical issue), participated in the initiatives of the Italian Foundation for the Environment (Fondo Ambiente Italiano (FAI)) and developed an interest in assistance, social care and social security systems. This led her to join an EU-recognized project such as “Take me home” (E53H18000160006), with the support of the European Social Fund.

UNIVERSITÀ DEGLI STUDI DI SALERNO

IECLO

Project funded by European Commission Erasmus + Programme – Jean Monnet Action Project number 101126599. Funded by the European Union. Views and opinions expressed are however those of the author(s) only and do not necessarily reflect those of the European Union or the European Education and Culture Executive Agency (EACEA). Neither the European Union nor EACEA can be held responsible for them