

Jean Monnet Module EU-GLOBACT

Transnational Crime and EU Law:
towards Global Action against Cross-border
Threats to common security, rule of law,
and human rights

Communications & External Relations Section (CERS)

ELVIN DEMIRÖZ holds a Bachelor's degree in Sociology from Dokuz Eylül University (Turkey) and is currently pursuing a Master's degree in Global Studies and EU, Policies for European Union Strategies at the University of Salerno. Her academic and research interests focus on global governance, European integration, migration policies, and international relations.

With a diverse professional background, Demiröz has developed expertise in sustainability, local economic structures, academic publishing, and international project coordination. She completed an internship in data analysis and public opinion research at the Izmir Metropolitan Municipality, contributing to the evaluation of local governance and citizen satisfaction. Additionally, she has actively participated in non-profit organizations, holding leadership roles within the Izmir Alsancak Leo Club, where she played a key role in strategic planning and social impact initiatives.

She focuses on fostering interdisciplinary collaborations and contributing to global discussions on socio-political challenges through research, policy analysis, and international cooperation. Her key areas of engagement include cross-border governance, human rights, and the impact of legal frameworks on global security. She is currently an active Member of the International & European Criminal Law Observatory (IECLO) at the University of Salerno, where she contributes to research on transnational crime, human rights, and judicial cooperation within the European legal framework.

UNIVERSITÀ DEGLI STUDI DI SALERNO

IECLO